

Mythic Links

Spring Events 2010

Irish Tradition & International Context

Thursday 28th January:

SPEAKER: Dr. Elva JOHNSON

What made St Brigit different in the Early Middle Ages?

Elva Johnson is a Lecturer at the College of Arts & Celtic Studies, School of History & Archives of University College Dublin

MUSIC: Niamh O'Brien RHIANNON will sing 'St. Brigit's Canticle'

Thursday 18th February:

SPEAKER: Nuala AHERN

Divine Odyssey - Early Saints and Pilgrimage Rituals of Wandering

Nuala Ahern is an environmentalist and political analyst, and a former Member of the European Parliament, where she represented the Green party

Thursday 25th March:

SPEAKER: Charles DOHERTY

Traditions of Kingship in early Ireland and India

Charles Doherty is Senior Lecturer at School of History & Archives, University College Dublin, and President of the Royal Society of the Antiquaries of Ireland

Thursday 22nd April:

SPEAKER: Dr. John DILLON

The Classics at the Wake: James Joyce and Greek Culture

John Dillon is a classicist and philosopher who was Regius Professor of Greek in Trinity College, Dublin. He was recently elected to the Academy of Athens

VENUE: United Arts Club, 3 Upper Fitzwilliam Street - Dublin 2 diagonally opposite Larry Murphy's Pub, Lower Baggot St.

Register from 7.15pm , 7.30pm start : €10 per evening (Free Street Parking 7pm)

WEBSITE: www.mythiclinks.com EMAIL: mythiclinks@gmail.com for Circulars with fuller information on events
